Gao Guangjie: Hello?

Investigator: Hi, hello!

Gao Guangjie: Please go ahead.

Investigator: Is that Doctor Gao speaking?

Gao Guangjie: Who is calling?

Investigator: I am from Xinbin. One family member of mine wants to receive a kidney transplant. Can your No. 463 Hospital still do that?

Gao Guangjie: Do what?

Investigator: Kidney transplantation.

Gao Guangjie: Yes, we can.

Investigator: So, you mean you can still do it, right? So ...

Gao Guangjie: You should contact the Department of Urologic Surgery. Even if you ask me, I am still not very clear about the details such as matching. I do not work for the Department of Urologic Surgery.

Investigator: Oh, oh. You are from the Department of Anesthesiology. OK, then I know whom to call and I will call them. You do a lot? I mean your hospital.

Gao Guangjie: Hmm?

Investigator: Does the hospital do a lot of...this kind of kidney transplants?

Gao Guangjie: There are many kidney transplants.

Investigator: Ah?

Gao Guangjie: There are many, many.

Investigator: OK, can you give me their telephone number?

Gao Guangjie: I am now at home, at home! Can you check the directory tomorrow morning? Currently the Department of Urologic Surgery is able to perform kidney transplants.

Investigator: OK...OK...

Gao Guangjie: So call again tomorrow during the day.

Investigator: OK, OK. So I should call the [hospital's] operator to check the number [for the Department of Urologic Surgery], right?

Gao Guangjie: Tomorrow morning, call the operator to find the number of the Department of Urologic Surgery, OK? Today they are performing surgeries. They must be doing operations, kidney transplants.

Investigator: Thank you. Goodbye.

Gao Guangjie: OK.
