Phone Investigation Recording

Investigator: Hello. Is this the right number to reach Chief Liu? Chief Liu Xin.

Nurse: Chief Liu Xin?

Investigator: Yes.

Nurse: Sorry, but here is the Center, the Kidney [Transplantation] Center. I don't have his number, either.

Investigator: Uh, I thought Chief Liu is working in your ward?

Nurse: You mean Liu Xin? I can ask someone else about his information. What's the matter?

Investigator: Here is the story. There is a patient from Anhui, who wants to visit your hospital for a kidney transplantation.

Nurse: That's OK. You can come over to talk to Chief Zhou, Zhou Hua. He does kidney transplantation. However, Chief Liu, he no longer works in our hospital. I don't know where he has gone. I forgot.

Investigator: Ah, I see. Oh, so [he is] no longer in your hospital. I see.

Nurse: If you plan to come to Shanxi for kidney transplantation, you can just talk to Chief Zhou. But in Shanxi Province, we are the only hospital that is capable of doing this [kidney transplantation]. So after you arrive, just call this number.

Investigator: I've heard that your hospital did more than 100 kidney transplants last year. Is that correct?

Nurse: We do at least more than 100 transplants every year.

Investigator: Oh, so it's the same for this year, right?

Nurse: Right. We do more this year than last year.

Investigator: How many have you done since [the beginning of] this year? Several dozen?

Nurse: Yes, almost 100.

Investigator: Nearly 100 so far?

Nurse: Yes, not exceeding 100 yet.

Investigator: Then about 70 or 80?

Nurse: That's correct.

Investigator: So is there another physician named Yang Jun working in your hospital?

Nurse: A physician named Yang Jun, maybe he has gone to the rural places recently. We cannot reach him. It's also OK that you just talk to Chief Huang.

Investigator: Chief Huang?

Nurse: Yes. Chief Huang is in charge of dialysis, then performing kidney transplant and contacting Chief Zhou. Yes, for this kind of thing.

Investigator: I never heard of a Chief Zhou, sorry about that. He introduced several chiefs to me, but I did not listen carefully. Maybe you have had personnel changes recently? So I will ... [interrupted].

Nurse: Wait, have you heard of Wu Xiaotong, Chief Wu?

Investigator: Yes, I know this person. He is the one doing surgery in the final step, right?

Nurse: Right, right. So how about you directly contact Chief Wu?

Investigator: OK, I got it. Bye, bye.
