Phone Investigation Recording

Investigator: Is that the Guangdong Hospital of Traditional Chinese Medicine?

Doctor: Yes.

Investigator: Is Director Cao here?

Doctor: Director Cao is not here.

Investigator: No? I have been at your hospital before. I have contacted him. But (your hospital's organ transplant) qualification was not approved at that time. Has the qualification been approved by now and you can do kidney transplantation?

Doctor: Yeah. We can do it now.

Investigator: Okay, so you can. I have a patient, who wants to do a kidney transplant. How long do we need to wait in the line?

Doctor: I don't know. It needs to wait for the tissue typing.

Investigator: If we do it today, would you do a lot of organ transplants? How many organ transplantation operations did you do today?

Doctor: We did a lot, I mean a lot. We try to do as many as we can. I don't know the exact number.

Investigator: So you are doing it every day?

Doctor: Right, right.

Investigator: Does Director Cao do it himself?

Doctor: Correct. He does it.

Investigator: You mean you do quite a lot now?

Doctor: Yeah.

Investigator: Do you mean we have an abundance of donors?

Doctor: I really don't know about this. I can't answer you. Hehe, hehe.

Investigator: Okay, so it is hard to tell? I will...

Doctor: Could you call at another time?

Investigator: No problem, thanks.
